I like Bananas (Because they have no Bones) Words and Music by Chris Yacich
(alterations by Ralph Shaw)

From the album Table for Two. More details at: www.ralphshaw.ca

C Cdim Dm7 G7 C Cdim Dm7 G7
Standing on the corner by the fruit store
C Cdim Dm7 G7 Gm A7
Once I heard a customer complain
D7 G7 D7 G7
You never seem to show the fruit we all love so
D7 G7
And that's why business hasn't been the same.

C D7
I don't want your peaches they are full of stones
G7 C
I like bananas because they have no bones
C D7
Don't give me tomatoes I can't stand ice-cream cones
G7 C
I like bananas because they have no bones
C7 F C
No matter where I go with Suzie, May or Anna
D7 G7
I want the world to know I must have my banana
C D7
Cabbages and onions hurt my singing tones
G7 C
I like bananas because they have no bones (Instrumental)

C D7
We all like to whistle we don't blow saxophones
G7 C
And we like bananas because they have no bones
C D7
Canada's quintuplets those famous five Dionnes
G7 C
They like bananas because they have no bones
F C
Our singings pretty good and maybe we'll get work
D7 G7
With the CBC we could be the nitwits of the network
C D7
Even the producer in his big headphones
G7 C
He likes bananas because they have no bones.